Article 1: Responsibility of the controller

The controller defines the purpose, duration, nature and the goal of the processing. It defines the type of personal data that it collects and treats and the categories of persons concerned.

Article 2 : Scope of subcontracting

The subcontractor intervenes on behalf of the controller in the administration of the network allowing the backup of the data collected and processed by the controller, in the maintenance of the device and reports with the third party in charge of hosting the data.

Article 3 : Obligation of the controller

In view of the nature, the scope, the context and the purpose of the processing as well as risks to the rights and freedoms of natural persons, the controller shall implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure and to demonstrate that the treatment is carried out in accordance with the rules in force.

These measures are reviewed and updated if necessary.

The controller shall implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure that, by default, only the personal data required for each specific purpose of the processing are processed. This applies to the amount of personal data collected, the extent of their processing, their shelf life and their accessibility. In particular, these measures ensure that, by default, personal data are not made accessible to an unknown number of natural persons without the involvement of the natural person concerned.

Article 4 : Subcontracting

The processing carried out on behalf of the controller shall be carried out by the subcontractor, who shall have sufficient guarantees for the implementation of appropriate technical and organizational measures in order to ensure that the processing meets the requirements of the rules in force and ensures protection of the rights of the person concerned.

The subcontractor may not use another subcontractor without the prior, specific or general written authorization of the controller. In the case of a general written authorization, the subcontractor shall inform the controller of any planned changes concerning the addition or replacement of the subcontractor or subcontractors, giving the controller the opportunity to raise objections against these changes.

Where the subcontractor recruits another subcontractor to carry out specific processing activities on behalf of the controller, the same data protection obligations as those set out in that contract shall apply to the latter. The subcontractor thus chosen must provide sufficient guarantees for the implementation of appropriate technical and organizational measures so that the treatment meets the requirements of the legislation in force.
